Mercerville, N.J., September 11, 2008 – Big Bang Entertainment Company announced today that they have released a new CD inspired by and in Memory of the Victims of 9/11 who lost their lives because of cowardly terrorists on 9/11, in Memory of the Heroes of 9/11 who tried and died saving the lives of the victims, and dedicated to the Avengers of 9/11 – “America’s Best”, the men and woman of the Armed Forces of the United States of America, who risk their lives so all American’s can live safe and free.

The CD “Tribute To America’s Best” was completed September 10th, 2008 after grueling around the clock work to get the CD completed in honor of 9/11. “Big Bang Entertainment Company (www.bigbangentco.com) and the “Bangers” All American Rock-n-Roll Band (www.thebangers.com) are celebrating their five year Anniversary this month, says Robert Batts, Founder of both the band and entertainment company. The “Bangers” All American Rock-n-Roll Band is one of the most Patriotic Rock-n-Roll bands in America. This 9 song Patriotic Rock Album is dedicated to “America’s Best” says Batts, a lead songwriter for the “Bangers” Band. The song America’s Not Fool-in’ Around[®] was written by Batts because of people he new who died on 9/11. Some of the lyrics from the song state: “You can run – but you can’t hide, All you cowards – you’re gonna die... One by one – we’ll hunt you down, America’s not fool-in around...” as well as “All you terrorists have blood – on your hands, America is coming – to crush you in your lands... Our Marines, Army, Navy and our Air-Force too, We’ll provide you with some gifts - via B-52...”

One main motivation for the songs written by Batts was Sergeant David Hoffman who served on several tours of duty as a member of the US Army - Joint Operations. The Star Spangled Americans Society (www.starspangledamericans.com) hosted a send off party at an American Legion facility in New Jersey in February 2006 and the “Bangers” played for the troops. At that time Robert Batts wrote a song called Bigger Than Life[®] dedicated to Sergeant Hoffman. Sergeant Hoffman went back to Iraq, with a flag Batts gave to him with the promise that he and his men would return safely home with the flag and all his comrades. Sergeant Hoffman recently presented the flag to Robert Batts along with a second flag that flew in World War II in the Battle of the Bulge and also in Iraq with the request by Sergeant Hoffman that Batts continue advocating support of “America’s Best”. Batts assured him he would, and presented him with two new songs he wrote inspired by Sergeant Hoffman. The two new songs are I’m Back From Iraq[®] and Thank God For You[®]. Sergeant Hoffman is a hero, a great friend of America, a friend of “America’s Best” and friend of Batts and the “Bangers” Band as well the team at Big Bang Entertainment.

The Music can be downloaded on the website www.thebangers.com or www.bigbangentco.com. The CD will be available October 6, 2008. Twenty percent of the proceeds of the CD will be donated to the Star Spangled Americans Society (www.starspangledamericans.com). The society is setting up an organization to help Homeless Veterans.
